Welcome back, Dear Reader.

The fragrance of change is already in the air. The students are coming to the college with more zeal and anticipation than ever before. There are a lot of activities going on in the campus, every day, every week, all along the month and all through the semester.

The academic success of our students on the one hand and the showcasing of their talents on various platforms provided, on the other, makes the atmosphere of the institution an idyllic place of learning. We hope this is just the beginning and more opportunities are around the corner.

Reach out your hand with us to build a better future.
